

Exhibit A

- I just want to start by saying to you Don that all these years you have been like the father figure, by representing him and b/c I would have to come to you if I wanted anything. I have a special relationship with you. We have built one throughout the years.

- What I have wanted my whole life, I realize I can't have, a dad. Even though I understood I couldn't <sup>get</sup> ~~even~~ a dad with him, I was showing that I was grateful because there was a trail of love, ~~but~~ my reality has not protected. But that

- Now as an older and more mature person, I realize what I thought was love and care is actually protection. Not protection for me but for him.

- I have been taken away the answer to a <sup>basic</sup> ~~question~~ question, and I have to lie to answer that question. Who are your parents.

- I am also realizing the kindness and trust my mom and I have shown and given has been used against us.

- I know that ~~him~~ his son also has an illegitimate kid but gave that kid 20 million dollars

- Is there a difference between illegitimate children?
- Is one worth more than the other.

- I researched before writing this out. I know he is worth 5 billion dollars. He's kids will get a part of that when he goes. I am not and won't be a part of the cowboys. I will not be a part of any of those things. And that is okay
- If something were to happen to my mom and I needed to take care of her, I want to be able to know I can do that. I want to know that I can take care of my family because I know that is what he has been doing all of ~~time~~ this time.
- By doing this I assign myself the head of the family because decisions my mom has made has not benefited this family as necessary
- I want my life to ~~be safe and have~~ <sup>be safe and have</sup> ~~be stable and safe~~ stability. I want
- I don't want to be defined as someone's child that can't say who their parents are. But I want to be treated with the respect I deserve.
- I want us to have an agreement. No one has ever asked me to sign an agreement. I don't care or want the agreement that was made with my mom. I don't want that one because this decision effects me the most.
- I want to be in control of this relationship
- I had blind trust and that trust has been misplaced

- the agreement I want is a separation agreement. I know that having a dad in my life is a part of my life. I am okay with that. What I want is what I think is fair. I already have a figure in mind and if I get that, I will be out of his life. I will sign something that says I will never reach out asking for money again, I will not speak about ~~my father~~ who he is. We will all be separated and if we ~~all~~ wanted to grab a bite or drinks as friends that is fine. But I will not reach out. I don't want to lie about my parents, if asked I will say he isn't involved and out of the picture.

- ~~Don, you have been a solid & reliable~~ I have been angry for many years but I am using that anger in a positive way right now.

- Don, you have been a solid and reliable person, you and I have developed a relationship. I wonder if you for just a ~~minute~~ minute you can remove yourself from being his attorney but to my friend.

- Ask yourself what you would think if you were in my position

- What do you think a reasonable amount would be?

STOP!!!

- I am trying to ask what is reasonable because of who he is and what I will never get. I know this is not a decision you can make on your own but it is a month away from my 21st.
